Dick Priestley Memorial

Watertrough edges Seattle on Don Hoxmeier's Final Shot!!!

On Saturday, Sep. 17, eight hearty bank board players showed up at the Watertrough Saloon to play in the Dick Priestley Memorial blind draw partners tournament. By a vote of the players, it was decided to play a team tournament.

Representing Seattle were: Miles Anderson, Ron Kraut, Marlene Kraut, and Steve Sefcik. Representing the Watertrough Saloon were: Don Hoxmeier, Dave Ott, Gary Hood, and Lee Stewart.

Watertrough Saloon started off the day with a victory, followed by two of Seattle's wins to give Seattle a 2 to 1 edge. Watertrough countered with two wins to give them a 3 to 2 advantage. The sixth game went to Seattle to force a seventh game tiebreaker.

Seattle put up Ron Kraut and Steve Sefcik with Watertrough matching them with Dave Ott and Don Hoxmeier. Ron and Dave played at one end and Don and Steve were at the other end.

The final and deciding game started out as a defensive struggle. When the score reached 17 Sea to 15 Water, Steve missed a shallow one on his fourth shot. Don countered with a 2 lag, giving Watertrough an 18 - 17 lead.

When the score reached 20 to 17 watertrough, all Don had to do was to score a one with the hammer. Steve put a weight next to the right cushion, Don knocked it off, with his weight going off. Steve again put his weight next to the right cushion. Don tried to tuck his weight behind Steve's weight, yet only putting it in the middle of the board, just ahead of Steve's weight. Steve managed to put a deep 2 in the right corner. When Don tried to hit and stay with the 2, he missed. Steve then blocked the weight, thus eliminating the possibility of staying with the weight. Don took a deep breath, and let it glide, hanging it in the middle of the board, giving the Watertrough Saloon a hard earned victory. The Cheers from the Watertrough team could be heard throughout the bar. "Peace Brother!"
